PROJECTS

ELEMENTRANQUIL

Phaser.io, Paper.js

Front-end application that is a collection of anxiety busting activities and animations. This is an on-going project I continue to add to as I am able.

ALLIGATOR JOBS

Google Translate API, Google authorization, Local authorization, Cookies, Encryption

Web app designed with a team to help refugees find work in America and to erase the divide between different working cultures. Assumed a scrum master role in the team. Focused on building an accessible application for populations with potential technology and language barriers.

IMPRESSIONS

Facebook Authorization, PostgreSQL, Node.js, Express, Swig, Knex.js

Restaurant-specific application similar to Yelp. Many lessons were learned about wiring up a database and rendering template language. Gained experience in implementing OAuth.
